CRIMINAL INSANE.

Judge Ferguson Declines to Pass

on Constitutionality of Act.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

RALEIGH, N. C., Sept. 23.—At a writ of habeas corpus hearing to night, Judge Ferguson remanded Emmett Boyette, of Kinston, to the criminal insane department of the penitentiary, declining to pass on the constitutionality of the act of the 1809 General Assembly requiring that when a man is acquitted for murder on the pien of insanity and committed to the insane department of the peniten. tlary he must remain there until liberated by a specked act of the Legislature. Boyette killed his wife a year ago while insane, being now pronounced cured, and his lawyers demand his constitutional right to liberty without awaiting a liberating act by the Legislature in January.

On advice of Judge Ferguson, counsel for Boyette will take the case before the Supreme Court to-morrow and ask for a ruling as to the constitutionality of the 1839 act.

Cotton Being Rushed.

(By Associated Press.)

SAVANNAH, GA., Sept. 28.—President C. C. Hanson, of the Atlantic Compress Company, which controls the compressing of cotton in the South Atlantic States, made a statement to-day to the Savannah Cotton Exchange relative to the congestion of cotton at the compresses in the interior. The blocade, he said, was due to an extraordinary rush of cotton to the presses and the scarcity of labor. Up to last Saturday night the presses of the Atlantic Company had handled 23,500 baies since September 1st, as against 11,000 baies for the same period last year. Extra time is being made by the compresses and Mr. Hanson hopes the blockade will soon bo relieved, notwithstanding up to this time the accumulation at the presses has been growing.

ttempts were made to-night to wreck trains on the Chesapeake and Ohlo a mile and a half above the city. Several mile and a half above the city. Several rocks as large as a flour barrel were placed on the track. They were struck by an east-bound freight, which was moving very slowly, and no damage was done. The crew of the night mail from Clifton Forge was notified to be on the lookout two hours later, and they found the obstructions on the track again. The officials of the road here are at a loss to explain the reason for such an attempt.

REPUBLICANS TO-NIGHT.

Will Elect Delegates to Third District Convention.

The Republicans of the city of Rich-The Republicans of the city of Richmond have been called by the City Committee to meet in mass convention at League Hall, on North Third Street tonight at 8 o'clock for the election of fourteen delegates to the regular Republican District Convention in this city October 4th. The meeting will probably be called to order by George S. Stephens (colored) the secretary, and a temporary presiding officer will be elected. It is not expected that City Chairman J. M. Ellett will attend, being allied with the opposing faction, claiming to be the regular Republicans and which recently nominated Edgar Allan, Jr., as its candidate for Congress.

It is expected that a large crowd will be a lively struggle for control of the delegation of fourteen persons to be named for the district convention. A number of colored Republicans will endeavor to secure the choice of delegates favorable to the nomination of Major J. B. Johnson, of Manchester, while others, together with a majority of the whites, will seek to elect a delegation favorable to the nomination of Major J. B. Johnson, of Manchester, while others, together with a majority of the whites, will seek to elect a delegation favorable to the nomination of Major J. B. Johnson, of Manchester, while others, together with a majority of the whites, will seek to elect a delegation favorable to the nomination of Mr. George A. Hanson, of this city. The whites expect to control the convention and will have the aid of some of the colored antendants at the meeting.

It will require considerable diplomacy to defeat the colored candidate without allenating his followers, but it is expected that every effort will be made to do this.
